About MOCK STOCK

“Someone is sitting in shade today because someone planted a tree a long time ago.”

–Warren Buffett, Berkshire Hathaway

Mock Stock is a speculative game that allows players to trade stocks in a virtual or simulated market environment. Players compete with each other to see who can predict the direction the stock market will go next. The competition is preceded by a lecture on fundamentals of stock trading. This event attempts to reproduce or duplicate some or all features of a live stock market on a computer so that a player may practice trading stocks without financial risk.

There is no age to learn stock market. Warren Buffett bought his first stock at age 11. He invested $38 in 1942 and now he has a fortune of $75 billion. It's all about starting. We at Chemovision will help you to understand the fundamentals and technicalities of stock marketing followed by online trading game.

This event is a great platform for business students to test their knowledge without any financial risk.

The event comprises of two parts:

PART 1: LECTURE

An interactive two hour lecture will be conducted in order to teach students the basic fundamentals of stock marketing. The lecture is further divided into 7 Modules.

Module 1: Stock Basics: This includes the basic aspects of stocks and how to make money using stocks.

Module 2: About History and Legendary Investors

Module 3: Financial Statements: This module deals with reading the financial statements

Module 4: Investing Strategies: A brief introduction regarding the major strategies is given in this module.

Module 5: Technical Analysis: In this module students will be taught about all the technicalities used in trading the stocks.

Module 6: It includes graphs and other technical terms used in the share market.

Module 7: Philosophical Changes

PART 2: THE TRADING GAME

- Virtual stock trading platform will be provided on 23rd March 2018.
- The competition shall be active during market hours (09:15 am - 03:30 pm). A trading day is defined as a day when both NSE and BSE are open for trading. Participants are requested to reach venue by 09:00 am.
- At the start of the contest, some amount of virtual money will be allocated to each participant. Participant can only invest in equity and not in Mutual Funds, Fixed Deposits and Commodities.
- The participant with the highest Net Worth (cash in hand + value of stocks held) at the end of the trading day will be the winner. Similarly, the next participant will be the first runner-up.
- The account allocated is purely virtual and cannot be liquidated into real money. Any profit / loss made in this contest / game is virtual and only for the purpose of the competition.
- We do not promote participants to invest real money on stocks. It solely depends upon the participant to invest the money at his own risk.
- The decision of management team will be final.
